A Message from your Parking Lot Volunteers

We volunteered to help your child disembark from your car
When we agreed to get up early, we had no intention to spar
Most of you are wonderful, helpful and kind
You make the early rising anything but a grind.

But some of you are rough on us; you take us all for granted
We leave the lot and go to work after you have ranted
Each morning as we contend with back packs, instruments and more
We pick up falling items, papers and empty wrappers with each open door.

Your kids are just delightful; each one has their own flair
But we need your help to see them between the tinted windows and glare
We prefer you don't get out of your car, or open your trunks on line
We hope you'll be considerate of all who need to get to work on time

We know that you are in a rush; you have a lot to do,
But please don't jump out from the line ahead of the car in front of you
We ask you to pull forward and that seems to bother you
Please don't question our directions; we have many cars to undo

We are not perfect, that is for sure, but we do try our best
We hope you'll help us in the mornings so we can reduce our stress
So for this holiday season and for those with whom you share the line
We hope that you will reflect on our little rhyme

And in this coming year, our wants are very few,
Please just treat us with respect and we'll do the same for you.
Happy Thanksgiving, Happy Holidays and a Happy New Year,
Your Parking Lot Volunteers

BOOK FAIR was a Great Success

The Book Fair is always a favorite for the kids and this year was no exception. We are thankful to all the wonderful volunteers for their service. A special thank you to the Chairpersons for the week long event who stood too long, Rhonda Connell and Kathy Ducey. Thank you also to Kate Laterra and Kate Taylor for their work on the volunteers and publicity. It is a big event and it takes a lot of planning to get every class into the fair. These parents did it all fluidly and it was great.

Veterans Day Celebration was Awesome!!

Thank you all for coming and being part of a Cochise tradition. Thanks to all the Veterans who were able to join us and be honored for their service. A special thank you to Carol Shershenovich, Laura St. John and Lisa Bloom for orchestrating the event.

Teacher Appreciation Holiday Luncheon - Volunteers Needed

Our annual Teacher Appreciation Holiday Luncheon is coming up (December 9th, Tuesday) and we need volunteers! If you are able to donate a food item, help decorate, or be a food server on the day of the event, please give Dana Trenter (480) 951-1929 or Michelle Lundgren (480) 655-0801 a call or e-mail Dana Trenter at trenter@cox.net.
